Yankees Take Double-Header From Senators—Phillies Swamp Giants—Dodgers Break Even

Mays Victor Over Johnson In Box Duel of 14 Innings

Hugmen Overcome Four - Run Disadvantage to Win by 5 to 4; Mogridge Beats Harper in Jean Jacques Dubuc Goes Nightcap Tussle Between Southpaws, 5 to 3

By W. O. McGeehan

The Yankees beat the Senators twice at the Polo Grounds yesterday in twenty-two and a half innings of baseball, which lasted five hours and twenty-five minutes. The first was a fourteen-inning battle, in which the Yanks came through by nicking Walter Johnson, the Speed King, hard, assisted by the sluggishness of intellect of the Solon outfield. The score was 5 to 4. The second game, a pitchers' duel between George Mogridge and Harper, both southpaws, went to the Yanks by a 5 to 3

it. That Watter has lost none of his speed will be sworn to by Roger Peckinpaugh, who narrowly escaped with his life a couple of times. Once Walter curved a ball past his chin and singed several whiskers. A second time Walter shot one so close to Roger's head that it tore the button from his cap and dashed it into atoms.

A double by Pipp, a single by Pratt ind a debate between Milan and Rice gave the Yanks the long battle in the fourteenth, with one out. A triple by Pratt in the eighth put the Yankees back in the battle when he scored on an infield hit by Lewis.

Johnson was hit rather hard, especially in the fourteenth, when the Yankees crashed through with the winning run. It took three singles, a sacrifice and a two-bagger to shoot it through.

The drive started with a smash by Peckinpaugh to left field. Baker rolled down a sacrifice and Peckinpaugh tried to get all the way to third on it. He was out by a whisker, and it looked as though the game would last as long as the peace conference.

Pratt saved the Yanks in the eighth with the score 4 to 3. With Walter Johnson in the box and going well it looked as though the game was as good as over. With one out Pratt lashed the ball into left field for three bases. He came home when Lewis, on the squeeze signal, beat a hit to third.

Danielson, who now takes office, is one of the best known and most capalled of the younger generation of alumni at Columbia. He entered the college in the fall of 1911 and was graduated in 1915. He was one of the 1915 student board, which was instrumental in bringing about the return of football as an intercollegiate sport.

A little consternation was caused in the raffks of the hungry friends and admirers who were waiting until the bitter end when Shanks got himself a home run in the eighth. Fewster, who is an infielder normally, misjudged his drive against the wall, and Shanks got all the way home before the ball could be retrieved.

To cinch the matter, the Yanks got one more in the eighth. Fewster singled to right and went to third on Peck's two-bagger to left. He scored on Pipp's out to short.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28.-The low o show it. The Phillies produced their's here this afternoon in their battle with the Giants, and the way in which they thumped the apple and which they thumped the apple and ran up scores would lead one to think they were champs instead of cellarites. When the thing had all ended and count was taken of the number of runs tallied, it was found the locals had 14 to the Giants' 2. The umpire accordingly awarded the game to the Quakers. It wasn't much of a game, but it certainly was a great track meet.

McGregor the Great was almost a prohibitive favorite, having won the irst heat in the race yesterday before the event was held over because of weather conditions. Marion Dale was utclassed yesterday, but came strong to-day.

It was a Murphy day, as the New York reinsman drove Direct C. Burnett and Sanardo to victories in straight heats in the Neponset and the Pilgrim. The fatest heat in the Neponset was paced in 2:0314 and in the Pilgrim in 2:05.

Ed Geers drove a winner in the American Horse Breeder Futurity, for three-year-old trotters, Mollie Knight going over in straight heats, the best time being 2:0614.

The authorities stopped all speculations on the races.

For The Veterans

You may not know again the younger years, You may not feel again the ancient thrill, As step by step you know that twilight nears And Time, old thing, refuses to stand still.

You may not feel the keenness of the chase, You may not leap to meet the winning run, You may not stand the swiftness of the pace That's part of morning-and the rising sun.

But you at least can pike along your way And hold the stride that's known your ancient tracks, Matching your brain against the faster way Till youth, exultant, quivers, slips-and cracks.

The achievement which Norman Brookes and Gerald Patterson turned out in winning the doubles championship at lawn tennis from both Great Britain and America marks this team as the best now in existence. It also brings up the argument as to which might be classified as the greatest by), Structure

The Pitching Slump

If there is anything in the parboiled statistic, American League pitching this season has come upon ragged ways.

Either that or American League batting has reached amazing expertness. The batting averages of all American or National League players for the last ten years has been in the immediate neighborhood of .250. This season four clubs have been pestling the pill or harassing the horsehide above .270, while no less than six have been pounding along BASEBAIL TO-DAY, 2 games; N. Y. above .260.
